Trust our Relocation Services to Support your Relocation Programs

To ensure success, every relocation requires a carefully-managed closing. TRS provides superior closing and equity services designed to minimize the possibility of errors, and save our clients money.

TRS provides a complete, turnkey closing and equity solution—everything from ordering and review of title work, equity calculation, and approving the resale closing—that can be seamlessly integrated into any relocation program.

And because we are an independent company, we aren't locked into an affiliated title network. Instead, we partner with the best closing agents and deliver customized service that ensures a smooth, hassle-free process.

TRS' professional staff each has over 15 years of experience in closing and equity services, and our expertise can help make your program stronger. And more cost-effective.

The TRS Advantage

- We're independently owned, ensuring flexibility and personalized attention
- We don't select our closing agents from some affiliate network; rather, we research and partner with only the best agents in any region, then closely monitor them to ensure superior performance
- We're a watchdog for our clients' costs
- "No Surprises" pricing. Our service cost includes such things as overnight and wire fees
- One, single contact point—a TRS Closing Specialist—for each relocating employee
- We track proceeds and post-closing funds so that you receive everything in a timely manner, resulting in improved cash flow
- A program that is completely customized to the client's needs. Whatever you need, however you need it, we can make it happen.

A Relocation Partner You Can Trust

Trust is at the center of everything we do. You can trust in our closing and equity services expertise. You can trust in the service partners we carefully select and monitor. You can trust that we'll work diligently to keep your company's costs in check. And you can trust that we won't rest until we've satisfied you and your relocating employees.

We like to think that our service speaks for itself. Call us today at 888 796-9698, and we'll explain how TRS can help your company. We believe that once you see our expertise and service focus in action, you'll know you've made the right choice.
